Homeowners Present: Kathy Whalen, Cathy Lindstrom

Meeting was called to order 10:03 AM

1. The committee discussed when the next newsletter should be disseminated to the community, and it was decided to target Dec. 1 but that it may be a few days late due to the Thanksgiving holiday
2. The committee discussed various items that should be included in the next newsletter:
 - a. Gayle Jesse's letter concerning the financial fitness of the HOA will be on the front page
 - b. Linda Ennis is going to provide a summary of the annual meeting held on Friday, November. 21
 - c. Of the proposed items by Barbara and Lynne, the committee decided on "Eat the rainbow," and "Confusing Words."
 - d. Linda will incorporate a section addressing ARC matters.
 - e. Lynne will compile a synopsis of which issue should be addressed with the respective committees
 - f. Andy will write a brief history of the Methodist Church. Other denominations/religions will be highlighted in future issues, s.a. Baptist, Wesleyan, Pentecostal, Jewish, Buddhism, etc.
 - g. upcoming events such as "Deck the Halls," Christmas dinner, taking down Christmas decorations, New Years Day bonfire, etc.
 - h. Barbara will give a short summary of the "Turkey Walk."
 - i. picture of Cathy Lindstrom and Linda Ennis cleaning up horse poop
 - j. We will continue with the BOD contact information
 - k. space permitting, we will include pictures of the Oktoberfest
3. The committee discussed sending a survey to the community in January to find out if the newsletter should be continued. All voted to table the survey for the time being.
4. Linda Ennis will explore programs that can be purchased to save time in creating the newsletter

5. The committee decided to use Tuesday, Nov. 25 to prepare the articles for the newsletter and send them to Barbara.
6. Next newsletter will be sent out to the community on Feb. 1, 2026.
7. Next committee meeting is scheduled for Jan. 12, 2026, when further details regarding the park remediation will be provided. Barbara will gather information from Theresa Edwards before next meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 11 AM.
